LONDON IN DUMPS

CAPTURE OF BRITISH CAUSES HUMILIATION.

THE BOERS TOOK SEVEN GUNS

RUMOR RECEIVED OF THEIR RECAPTURE.

THE BURGHERS ARE MASSING

BIG BATTLE THOUGHT TO BE PROGRESSING.

London, April 2.—The rumors of the recapture of the seven guns taken from Colonel Broadwood's forces, based on a dispatch to the Chronicle from Bloemfontein, which it is said in all probability is correct, fails to compensate London for the severe shock experienced from the humiliating defeat sustained within a few miles of the headquarters of the British army of occupation. The public is painfully surprised to learn that after all that has come and gone that the British officers of high position can still neglect precautions which the veriest tyro might be expected to observe and blunder into traps which the observance of the elementary military rules would have revealed.

There is no attempt here to minimize the discreditableness of the whole affair, so far as the British are concerned, or detract from the dexterity of the Boers, who apparently were commanded by General Dewet. The tactics of the burghers were evidently excellently conceived and boldly carried out, and unless the reinforcements sent by Lord Roberts have turned the tide and recaptured the prisoners a couple of hundred men from two crack corps of the household cavalry and the Tenth hussars are now on their way to swell the growing deposit of British prisoners at Pretoria.

CLOSING ON BLOEMFONTEIN.

President Kruger is said to have promised to reoccupy Bloemfontein this week, and the stubborn burghers seem to be closing around the place in such force as promises to be troublesome, especially when it is realized that the activity of a strong Boer force in the vicinity of Paarde-berg has already interrupted direct communication between Lord Roberts and Kimberley. But for the overwhelming numbers at the disposal of Lord Roberts the situation would justly cause Great Britain greater anxiety. As it is the nation is beginning to realize from the nature of the guerilla warfare that it is liable to embarrass the future movements of the British troops.

A special dispatch from Bloemfontein this morning reports that the water supply of the place has been cut off. This is the natural sequence of the Boer success at the waterworks. But the authorities are hopeful that the strong reinforcements sent by the commander-in-chief will promptly remedy this.

BIG ENGAGEMENT ON.

It is evident from Lord Roberts' dispatch that a big engagement is in progress. Although it is difficult to estimate the number of British engaged, they probably exceed even the eight or ten thousand men which the Boers are estimated to number.

The scene of the British disaster appears to be Mealie Spruit, where the Bloemfontein road crosses a tributary of the Modder river.

A dispatch from Lorenz Marques, dated today, announces the arrival there of Captain Haldane, of the Gordon Highlanders, and Lieutenant Le Mesurier, of the Dublin fusiliers, who escaped from Pretoria, after perilous adventure.

It appears that after Winston Churchill's escape the sentries were doubled, electric lights were installed, additional barracks were constructed and the officers were confined in the model school after 6:30 p. m.

ROBERTS REPORTS LOSS.

London, April 2.—12:50 p. m.—The war office reports that Colonel Broadwood lost seven guns and all his baggage in the ambush laid for him by the Boers on Saturday. The casualties numbered 350.

The war office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, April 1:

"I received news late yesterday afternoon from Colonel Broadwood, who was at Thaba N'Chu, thirty-eight miles east of here, that information had reached him that the enemy was approaching in two forces from the north and the east. He stated that if the report proved true he would retire towards the water works, seventeen miles nearer Bloemfontein, where we have a detachment of mounted infantry for the protection of the works. Broadwood was told in reply that the ninth division of Martyr's Mounted infantry will march at daylight today to support him, and that if he considers it necessary he should retire from the water works.

"He moved there during the night and bivouacked. At dawn today he was shelled by the enemy, who attacked on three sides. He immediately dispatched two horse artillery batteries and his baggage toward Bloemfontein, covering some of them with his cavalry.

NOT SEEN BY SCOUTS.

"Some two miles from the water works the road crosses a deep mullap, or spruit, in which during the night a force of Boers had concealed themselves. So well were they hidden that our leading scouts passed over the drift without discovering them, and it was not until the waggons and guns were entering the drift that the Boers showed themselves and opened fire. Many of the drivers of the artillery horses were immediately shot down at short range and several of the guns were captured. The remainder galloped away, covered by Roberts' horse brigade, which suffered heavily.

"Meanwhile Lieutenant Chestermasters, of Remington's scouts, found a passage across the spruit unoccupied by the enemy, by which the remainder of Broadwood's force crossed. They reformed with great steadiness, notwithstanding all that had previously occurred.

LOST SEVEN GUNS.

"Broadwood's report, which has just reached me, and which contains no details, stated that he had lost seven guns and all his baggage.

"He estimates all his casualties at about 350, including 200 missing.

"On hearing this morning that Broadwood was hard pressed I immediately ordered General French with two remaining cavalry brigades to follow in support of the ninth division. The latter, after a magnificent march, arrived on the scene of action shortly after 2 p. m.

"Broadwood's force consisted of the Royal Household cavalry, the Tenth Hussars, G and U batteries of the Royal Horse artillery and Pilcher's battalion of mounted infantry.

"The strength of the enemy is estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000, with guns, the number of which is not yet reported."

A LATER REPORT.

London, April 2.—4:55 p. m.—The war office has received another dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated at Bloemfontein, Sunday, April 1, 8:15 p. m., in which, after referring to his previous telegram, he gives a partial list of the missing British officers. Of "G" battery four officers were wounded, two of whom are missing. One gunner was killed and forty non-commissioned officers and men are wounded or missing. Lord Roberts then continues:

"In 'U' battery all are missing except Major Taylor and a sergeant-major. The two cavalry regiments did not suffer so much. A report has just come in that the enemy has retired toward Ladybrand, leaving twelve wounded officers and some seventy men at the waterworks. We are now sending an ambulance for them."

It will be noticed that in the foregoing Lord Roberts says nothing in regard to the British guns being recaptured.

BOERS ACTIVE ALONG VAAL.

Kimberley, Sunday, April 1—There is great Boer activity along the Vaal river. About 6,000 burghers have assembled at various points between Fourteen Streams and Christiana. About 700 men are occupying Witrand, north of Klipdam, and 400 men are laagered at Boetsap.

FAST DRIVING.

A. C. Pepe made affidavit in Mayor Scherer's court this morning charging Chris. Rodenbeck with fast driving. The complainant alleges that Mr. Rodenbeck ran over a little child of Mr. Pepe's with his horse and buggy Sunday afternoon. He claims that but for the speed Mr. Rodenbeck was driving the accident might have been avoided.

RECEPTION TO BIGSBEE.

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—Capt. Charles D. Sigsbee, U. S. N., arrived in this city today. He was given an enthusiastic reception and will be the guest of the city for the remainder of the week. A public reception will be held this evening.

TALK OF TARIFF.

SENATE FINISHING DEBATE OF PORTO RICAN BILL.

SENATOR DEPEW IS HEARD

MAKES ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF THE MEASURE.

SENATOR BATE OPPOSES IT

WAR REVENUES MAY BE CUT DOWN SHORTLY.

Washington, April 2.—The senate convened at 11 o'clock today in order that the debate on the Porto Rican bill might be extended. The public galleries were crowded. Mr. Vest, of Missouri, rising to a question of privilege, said upon his return to the city after an absence on account of illness he had found that on the vote to strike out the provision in the Porto Rican bill for a duty of 15 per cent. of the Dingley duties he had been noted as absent and not paired. He explained that he had a general pair which he thought was sufficient. Had he been present he would have voted to strike out the duty on Porto Rican products.

Proceeding, he directed attention to a notable case which he said had been overlooked in all the arguments. A sailor named Ross had shipped on an American merchantman from New York to Nagasaki, Japan. At that latter port he had murdered a fellow seaman on the vessel's deck and was convicted and sentenced to death by a consular court.

His sentence was cummuted to imprisonment for life in the Albany, N. Y., penitentiary. He sued out a writ of habeas corpus, the ground being that he had not been given a trial by jury, as insured by the constitution. The supreme court decided that he had had a fair trial and must remain in prison; that in order to avail himself of the right to a trial by jury the vessel must have been within the territorial limits of the United States.

Mr. Vest said he would like any senator to explain how the supreme court could come to that conclusion and state emphatically that within the territorial limits of the United States the constitution applies without act of congress or treaty stipulations and yet agree that a different tariff can be imposed on the people of Porto Rico from that imposed on the people of Missouri.

Mr. Bate, of Tennessee, after the Porto Rico bill had been laid formally before the senate, delivered his announced speech in opposition to the pending measure.

MR. BATE SPEAKS.

Mr. Bate, of Tennessee, directed his arguments particularly against the pending Porto Rican bill, but his speech embraced the whole question of expansion and the treatment by the government and by congress of our insular possessions. He took strong grounds against the acquisition of Spanish territory under the treaty of Paris—against which he voted.

Mr. Cullom, of Illinois, followed with an argument in favor of the bill.

MR. DEPEW'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Depew, of New York, then spoke in part as follows:

Mr. President, I have been listening with great interest to the many and very able speeches which have been delivered upon the Porto Rican tariff. I have endeavored to find in them a solution of the singular political conditions which seem to have arisen out of the presentation of this measure. I have thought perhaps the fact that the country is divided into storm centers and normally placid conditions is due to the extended discussion of the constitutional question having obscured the real meaning of a measure of revenue and relief.

"There is no division among the majority in either house as to the power of congress to legislate on this subject. The majority all agree that the constitution does not extend by its own power over these new possessions and that congress can legislate for them as it deems wise, subject only to the prohibitions upon congress in the constitution."

Senator Depew discussed the resources of Porto Rico and the purpose of the tariff, which he said was but temporary. Continuing, he said:

"The opposition to this bill is the result of the usual tactical operations for advantageous positions in a presidential year. The Calhoun theory of the constitution and the century-old fight of free trade to destroy protection have made a united and desperate charge upon the policy and provisions of this measure. The democratic position in regard to our island territories is clearly defined. They will claim that the moment any territory becomes the property of the United States by conquest, purchase, cession or discovery it is under our constitution and laws; that its people and products have the same rights and are entitled to the same freedom of movement all over the United States as the people and products of any state in the union; that statehood must speedily come and cannot be denied; that this would break down every barrier against pauper labor and admit free into our ports the things produced by people working in our tropical possessions for a few cents a day and would degrade our citizenship, and, therefore, if they get in power they will at once abandon these islands.

"The republican party stands upon the action of Jefferson, Monroe, Jackson, Polk, Pierce and Seward, that congress has the power to govern these acquisitions subject only to the prohibitions of the constitution.

"I recall for the consideration and admonition of my democratic friends that story of General Jackson's governorship of Florida, to which he was appointed by President Monroe, under the act of congress of March 3, 1821, providing 'that all military, civil and judicial powers shall be vested in such person and persons and shall be exercised in such manner as the president of the United States shall direct.' He claimed and exercised the executive, legislative and judicial functions of government under this commission and was sustained in them all. As legislature he enacted laws which brought him, as governor, in conflict with the ex-governor under Spain. As governor he promptly arrested and imprisoned that ex-official, and as judge proceeded to punish for contempt the federal district judge, who had issued a writ of habeas corpus for the Spaniard's release. It was after all this that he became and has since continued to be claimed as leader, counselor and inspiration for the democratic party.

"Under this power we can and will provide both for the development of our new possessions and the protection of industries and employment within the United States. As time and experience demonstrate the necessity for new laws and changes of existing laws, they will be enacted, but always with intent to maintain the high standard of American citizenship and the scale of American wages. Preferential tariffs will promote trade between the United States and all these islands.

"Porto Rico, Hawaii, Guam, Tutuila and the Philippines are to be held and governed by the United States with an imperative duty on our part to their inhabitants for their civilization, the encouragement of enterprises which will utilize their resources, and for their constantly increasing participation in their local and general governments, and also for their and our general commercial progress and growth. I do not believe that we will incorporate the alien races, and civilized, semi-civilized, barbarous and savage peoples of these islands into our body politic as states of our union.

"Order, law, justice and liberty will stimulate and develop our new possessions. Their inhabitants will grow with responsibilities of governing themselves, constantly increasing with their intelligence into conditions of prosperity and happiness beyond their wildest dreams of the results of that self-government they now so vaguely understand, while the United States, in the increasing demand for the surplus of our farms and factories in Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines, and in the tremendous advantages of position from Manila for reaching the limitless markets of the orient, can view without apprehension and with hopeful pride the inevitable expansion of our population and productions."

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, April 2.—When the house met today Mr. Payne, of New York, the floor leader of the majority, presented a resolution, which was adopted, calling upon the secretary of the treasury for information as to whether the war revenue act created a surplus and all the details concerning the revenue under that act with estimates of expenditures.

The presentation of the resolution, calling as it does for information which may furnish a basis for the reduction of the war revenues created considerable interest.

Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, asked if it covered anything save the internal taxation under the war revenue act.

Mr. Payne replied that it did not. There was no division on the adoption of the resolution.

BIG STRIKE ENDED

CHICAGO MACHINISTS RETURNED TO WORK.

NEW TROUBLES THREATENED

RETURNING WORKMEN WANTED THEIR OLD PLACES.

COOL HEAD AVERTS A CRISIS

BIG STRIKE INAUGURATED IN ST. LOUIS.

Chicago, April 2.—With the blowing of the whistles in the machine shops of Chicago for the beginning of work today thousands of machinists resumed the work interrupted some weeks ago by a strike. About half the five thousand men who went out resumed their labors this morning, and the manufacturers said that, as the differences had either been settled of put on a basis to be arbitrated, the remainder of the machinists would undoubtedly return in straggling lots during the next two or three days. The agreement entered into recently by representatives of the manufacturers and the men was ratified yesterday at a mass meeting, the votes being 3,038 in favor of ratifying the modified agreement and 396 against. The strike has cost the men half a million dollars in salaries while the loss to the manufacturers through inability to complete contracts cannot be readily calculated. The men have been granted a nine hour day with ten hours pay.

Fifty thousand members of the building trades' council learned that their fellow workmen in another trade had gone back to work with feelings of envy. By reason of strikes and lockouts they have been out for over a month, yet the settlement of the troubles between them and the contractors seem as far away as ever.

NEW TROUBLE THREATENED.

Later in the day matters pertaining to the resumption of work in the factories became muddled and some radicals among the men clamored for the calling of a general strike forthwith. President O'Connell, of the national organization, begged the men not to jeopardize the line of the settlement. The men alleged that many of them had returned to their former places of employment, but that some of them had been refused their old positions in direct violation of the modified agreement providing that all old employes, without exception, have back their old positions.

"It is all right," said President O'Connell, "these are minor difficulties and are probably the work of misguided foremen who had grudges against the men they refused to take back. The result, I think, will be that some foremen will lose their jobs and all the men will be back at their places within a week. It takes time to readjust big machines when they get out of order."

STRIKE AT JOLIET.

Joliet, Ill., April 2.—A general strike in the building trades of Joliet was declared today, about five hundred men being involved. The demand generally is for an eight-hour day and an increase in wages of from 5 to 15 cents an hour.

TROUBLE IN ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—Two thousand journeymen painters and 1,500 carpenters refused to go to work today, pending an adjustment of differences with their bosses over their demands for an increase of wages. The carpenters asked for an increase from 35 cents to 45 cents an hour. It is estimated that there are 2,000 union carpenters in the city and of these 500 are still at work, the new scale having been granted by their bosses. The demand of the painters is for an increase from $2.50 to $3 a day.

STRIKE IN INDIANAPOLIS.

Indianapolis, April 2.—Several hundred union carpenters of the city did not work today. No word was received from the contractors' association with reference to the demand for an increase of wages to thirty-five cents per hour. The men say they do not wish to be regarded as strikers, but simply quit work pending negotiations between the union and the contractors.

MINERS QUIT WORK.

Pittsburg, April 2.—From 12,000 to 15,000 coal miners in the Pittsburg district and 9,000 in the Irwin district are on a strike today. The cause of the trouble in the Pittsburg district is dissatisfaction over the dead work scale of the Indianapolis agreement and was entirely unexpected.

NEW PLACE OF MEETING.

The members of the Allen County Medical association have changed their place of meeting and in the future will meet in the hall of the public library, commencing Tuesday evening. The society formerly met in App's hall, on Calhoun street, but at the last meeting it was decided to change the quarters. The program for tomorrow evening will consist of papers by Dr. A. F. Buchman, on "The Influence of the Mind on Disease," read by Dr. W. F. Whery, on "The Liberty of Practicing Medicine."

ST. GEORGE MIVART IS DEAD

FAMOUS ENGLISH SCIENTIST DIES IN LONDON.

Was Recently Prominent in a Religious Controversy With Cardinal Vaughan.

London, April 2—3 a. m.—Dr. St. George Mivart died suddenly last night. He was a well known scientist and his recent controversy with Cardinal Vaughan led to his inhibition as a Catholic. He was to have been a guest of the Authors' club tonight.

Prof. St. George Mivart, Ph. D., Rome, M. D., F. R. S., was born in Brook street, Grosvenor Square, London, November 30, 1827, and educated at Clapham, Harrow, and King's and St. Mary's colleges. He was prevented from attending Oxford by joining the Roman Catholic church in 1844. In 1851 he was called to the bar at Lincoln's Inn. He was lecturer in St. Mary's hospital medical school in 1862, elected a fellow of the Royal society in 1867; vice president of the Zoological society in 1869; secretary of the Linnean society in 1874, and professor of biology at University college in 1874.

He was created Ph. D. in Rome in 1876 and M. D., Louvain, in 1880. He was the author of many papers on scientific subjects.

The following are the titles of some of his important works: "On the Zoology, Anatomy, and Classification of Apes and Lemurs, Especially on the Osteology of the Limbs. Compared With the Limbs of Man," "The Mythology of the Echidna, Agouti, Hyrax, Iguana, and Certain Failed Batrachians," "The Osteology of Birds," "Man and Apes," and "The Origin of Human Reason."

URGES SILENCE AS TO SILVER.

New York, April 2.—Oswald Ottendorfer, editor of the Staats Zeitung, when interviewed by a World reporter on the political issues of the day and the prospects of the coming national campaign, said:

"The German-Americans voted almost solidly against Bryan and free silver four years ago. They are still opposed to the free coinage of silver, but they know that the gold standard is now a reality and that it cannot be interfered with for some years to come. Personally, and speaking only for myself, I would prefer Bryan's election to McKinley's re-election. In my opinion the Kansas City convention would do a wise thing by remaining silent in the free silver issue. Why should the battle of 1900 be fought on the issues decided in 1896? There are new and important issues before the people today—issues which involve the very life of the republic. A great majority of the people do not wish to be forced to vote for McKinleyism, imperialism and militarism, and I am convinced that thousands and thousands of voters who four years ago preferred McKinley to Bryan are now ready to prefer Bryan to McKinley. Bryan will have a chance of winning if he and his friends do not insist upon a radical affirmation of the Chicago platform."

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The council committee of the whole will meet tomorrow evening to discuss the proposed franchise for the Ohio and Indiana Traction company. Councilman Scheid is chairman of the committee.

Councilman McMahon was at the city hall this morning, having just recovered from a three weeks' sickness.

QUITS HIS CHURCH

REV. NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS HAS RESIGNED.

NO LONGER A PRESBYTERIAN

SENDS A LETTER TO CHICAGO PRESBYTERY.

RESULT OF CHANGE OF VIEWS

DOES NOT HOLD TO DOCTRINE OF PREDESTINATION.

Chicago, April 2.—Dr. W. C. Gray, editor of the Interior, today presented to the annual meeting of the Chicago Presbytery the matter of the resignation from that body of Rev. D. M. Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, the outcome of criticisms of Dr. Hillis' recent denunciations of certain Presbyterian doctrines.

Nearly every Presbyterian minister of Chicago was present when the venerable minister read the letter and the closest attention was paid to its reading. The letter was quite lengthy and went fully into the recent questions of Presbyterian doctrine raised by him in his sermon at Plymouth church.

DR. HILLIS' LETTER.

Some opposition was made to the reading of the letter, but attempts to refer it to committees for possible suppression were voted down.

After presenting his withdrawal from the Presbytery of Chicago and asking to be emitted from the Presbyterian church, Dr. Hillis went into the reason which led him to take such steps. The letter continued:

"I had intended to ask to be transferred to the Congregational denomination, but on account of my admiration and appreciation of the work of Dr. Abbott and Henry Ward Beecher, neither of whom were ever affiliated with any denominational organization, I have postponed such action."

Dr. Hillis said since his sermon last Sunday had so deeply disturbed his brethren of the church, which he much regretted, he considered it incumbent upon himself to resign. He regretted his former instructors considered him ungrateful, for ingratitude was a sin, indeed. For years, however, in common with other ministers, he had been apologizing for the Presbyterian faith.

"What shall be said of a creed," Dr. Hillis' letter continued, "that is accepted by our clerical instructors one day and rejected the next? Some have said that I am drifting away from the Christian faith and becoming interested in philosophy and literature. Nevertheless, the exact opposite is the truth. For years I have urged revision of our cruel creed and the preparation of a new one. And now I can do nothing else than withdraw.

"I feel that the church is approaching a great crisis. Unless our churches present a solid front our Christian civilization will be overwhelmed by the forces of mammon and greed."

At the conclusion of the reading of Dr. Hillis' letter it was referred to a committee, to make such answers to Dr. Hillis as may be deemed wise and to recommend the action to be taken by the Presbytery. The committee will report late this afternoon.

Several ministers expressed their intention of opposing the acceptance of Dr. Hillis' resignation and a warm debate is expected when the matter is brought up.

PLEA FOR GROWTH

EXPANSION THE DUTY OF THE UNITED STATES.

NATION MUST MEET DESTINY

COLONIZING DOES NOT MEAN IMPERIALISM.

ADDRESS OF DR. DAVID HILL

AT SPRING CONVOCATION OF CHICAGO UNIVERSITY.

Chicago, April 2. In the presence of an audience of students and their friends, Assistant Secretary of State David J. Hill today delivered the convocation address to the graduating class of the University of Chicago.

President Harper delivered his quarterly statement, telling of the $250,000 which had been raised since January 1, thereby fulfilling the agreement which secures to the university the $2,000,000 pledged by John D. Rockefeller on condition that the university raise a like amount. A feature of peculiar interest was the granting of the degree of associate to fifteen freshmen and sophomore students. The degree was only recently established.

The innovation in the granting of degrees, mentioned by President Harper to the presidents of fourteen different colleges at their recent meeting in Chicago, is expected to effect not only colleges the country over, but high schools as well. The idea was applauded by all but Harvard. Its purpose is to get men into what is practically graduate work in the last two years before receiving the traditional bachelor's degree or to start them immediately in professional schools.

TALKS FOR EXPANSION.

This afternoon Dr. David Jayne Hill, assistant secretary of state, delivered an address on "The Place of America in World Politics." He spoke in part as follows:

"From a weak and [illegible] dependency, in reality, the United States emerges from its war with Spain to discover that it has suddenly become one of the greatest oceanic powers of the world. Holding, on the West Tutuila, the finest port in the Southern Pacific, the Hawaiian Islands, Guam and the Philippine Archipelago, while its continental coast line of more than five thousand miles occupies necessary mid-width of the entire Pacific water front.

"The advocates of little America as opposed to the greater America have sought to inspire the conviction that our recent development is the fruit of political materialism—a repudiation of those great ideas which animated the founders of the nation. Deriving their standard of national morality from the closet, they find the path of duty in perpetual isolation, and proclaim the doctrine that the material and moral expansion of the country are contradictory and incompatible.

"But all experience teaches that the improvement of national character is not to be sought by pious contemplation of one's virtues in a monastic cell, but wrung from the stern issues of life by conscientious effort in the great field of activity; for nations, like men, become strong and great only by mastering manfully their divinely appointed tasks.

"Any form of expansion which does not include the extension and diffusion of that which characterizes our deeper and purer national life, that which we are proud to call our 'Americanism' is not worthy of the energies and the ambition of the American people. What then, is that Americanism which we cannot abandon or disregard without casting into the sea the precious pearl of our national inheritance?

"It is the principle that no form of civil polity is tolerable which does not permit and encourage the most free and unrestrained development and exercise of all those mental and moral faculties and energies which give force and value to the individual man; the idea of a free, generous and harmonious co-operation of man with man, of institution with institution, of party with party, and of commonwealth with commonwealth in the promotion of generaly prosperity, with regard to class, creed, section or racial origin; a reverence for ideals of justice and equity incorporated into law of the land, made operative by the combined force of society, and sustained by the glad and willing obedience of all its members.

"Liberty is sweet, but it is not the whole secret of our national development. Fraternity is noble but it is not the only bond of our civic coherence. Deeper than both Liberty and Fraternity lies sublime conception of an imperative moral order, which is not merely the fertile source [illegible] rights, but the compelling [illegible] individual and national [illegible] of government can rise to the level of great human interests and secure the rights of humanity, it is that of sovereign people, able to sit in judgment upon its public servants and hold them responsible for their official acts. Wherever the flag of our country flies, on land or sea, there the American conscience is present to uphold it, as the symbol and pledge of liberty and law. In the divine charter of humanity there are no prescriptions of latitude and longitude, the boundaries of nations do not limit the jurisdiction of ethical principles and the vast oceanic spaces present no barriers to human rights; for there, as everywhere, the eternal laws which Infinite Power has interfused with nature press forward to their fulfillment in the unfinished work of man's development."

COLING MAKES TWO ARRESTS

YOUNG MEN FOUND WITH STOLEN PROPERTY.

They Have Been in Trouble Before—Lieutenant Lapp's Annual Report—Police News.

For many weeks complaints have been made to the police by officials of the Wabash that iron scraps, brass and copper have been stolen from the yards and round house by persons unknown. Oftentimes the brass was taken from engines. Detective Coling promised to investigate today and he went to the Wabash yards about 9:30 this morning and met two young men, John Yates and Heikenrider, coming down the tracks with a basket. The detective arrested them and opening the basket found in it about sixty pounds of brass, copper and iron. Some of the property was identified as belonging to the Wabash and the young men, who are about 17 were taken to the police station and locked up. They have been in trouble before and the law will probably not deal lightly with them this time as heretofore.

HOME OF ITS OWN

NEW STRUCTURE FOR IMPERIAL WAIST FACTORY.

SAMUEL M. FOSTER TO BUILD

THE WORK WILL BEGIN EARLY IN JULY.

LOCATION NOT YET DECIDED

IMPROVEMENT AND ENLARGEMENT CONTEMPLATED.

During the coming summer Samuel M. Foster will erect a large and substantial structure for the exclusive use of the Imperial waist factory, of which he is owner. The announcement was made by Mr. Foster to a reporter of The Sentinel this morning, though he stated that plans were yet in an embryonic state and it was impossible to give either the location of the building or the exact size.

Mr. Foster is the owner of both the Foster and the Imperial waist factories, and when the latter was wiped out by the fire at Harrison and Columbia streets a few weeks ago it was compelled to seek new quarters farther east on Columbia street. This location is but temporary and will serve until the completion of the present plans for enlarging the factory and placing it in a home of its own. The Edgerton building on West Main street is now also in use as a storeroom and cutting department, and when the new building is completed all the departments will be brought together under one roof.

Mr. Foster does not expect to begin work upon the new building before July 1. He is casting about for a suitable location, and while he has several tracts of land in consideration, is undecided whether to use one of the sites now owned by him or purchase another for the new enterprise. It is said the factory may go to the south side of the city, and it is certain to be greatly enlarged as soon as present plans are carried out. The new structure will be fire-proof, four stories in height, with a frontage of from forty to fifty feet, and will be with every convenience and improvement that will facilitate the manufacture of its product.

DIED IN COLORADO.

A delayed message this morning brought to Joseph Slater, of 19 Bass street, news of the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Christina Davidson, which occurred last Thursday at Shipka Ranch, eighteen miles from Denver, Col. The message also stated that the deceased was buried Sunday afternoon, the funeral services being at the Baptist church near her home. Mrs. Slater was at the bedside of her mother when the end came. Mrs. Davidson formerly resided with her husband in this city. He was a machinist in the Wabash shops, but the confinement attending that trade was injurious to health, and he moved to Colorado and engaged in cattle raising a dozen years ago. He died on his ranch two years ago. William Davidson, a son of the deceased, is a machinist also and worked in this city up to two or three years ago, when he, too, went to Colorado, where he has had charge of the farm since the death of his father.

MR BOOKWALTER BETTER.

Word from Indianapolis is to the effect that the venerable Josiah Bookwalter, who has been critically ill, is now slightly better. The attending physician says the crisis has been passed, and unless some unforeseen complication ensues, his recovery is probable. The patient is still in a very weakened condition.

BROKE ALL RECORDS.

The sale of stamps and stamped papers during that time amounted to a total of $9,083.51, and in no single previous month has the sale touched the $9,000 mark. The monthly average is about $7,000.

FARM HOUSES BURN.

Two disastrous farm house fires have occurred in Allen county within the past few days. On Friday the residence of James Chaney, of Aboite, was burned, and the day previous the farm house of William McBride, of Lafayette township, was totally destroyed. There was but $250 insurance on the latter.

Last evening, at Christ's Lutheran church, Rev. L. J. Motschman completed a much appreciated seven-number series of sermons on "The Bible and Modern Thought." Beginning this evening, there will be services each evening, except Saturday, until Easter. The subjects are as follows: Monday evening, "Thinking of the Christ;" Tuesday, "Seekers After Jesus;" Wednesday, "A Self-Centered and a Christian-centered Righteousness;" Thursday, "Preconceived Notions," and on Friday evening Rev. Yager, of the missionary extension board, will be in charge.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning from the chapel at the orphans' home.

TIEMAN.

Frederick Tieman, 44 years of age, died Saturday evening at his residence, 83 Wall street, from tuberculosis. For the past two years Mr. Tieman's health has been impaired, but until nine weeks ago he was able to perform his duties as a stair builder at the factory of Diether Bros. Mr. Tieman was born in Adams county, Ohio, but the greater part of his life has been spent in this city, where he worked at the carpenter trade until nine years ago, when he took up the work of stair building. Surviving him are the widow and three children—Bertha, aged 17; Harry, 12, and Albert, 6, besides a brother and four sisters.

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Florence Parmin, who has been seriously ill for some time, is recovering.

Miss Esther Walton entertained the G. R. S. club at her home on Brackenridge street on Saturday afternoon.

At the meeting of the Commercial club this evening E. J. Richards, of Indianapolis, will make an address on liquified air. Mr. Richards is thoroughly conversant with his subject, and the address will no doubt be most interesting.

Some friends of Dr. C. F. Nieschang played a joke on him on Sunday, which caused that gentleman considerable perturbation. The doctor left his horse and buggy standing in front of his house, and when he came out they had disappeared. Later the horse and buggy turned up with an April fool tag on it, and the doctor's friends are giving him the laugh.

Overwork

and Worry bring on Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, and an endless train of Painful Disorders.

Dr. Miles' Nervine.

When the nerves and organs of the body are well and strong, and the worn-out tissues and waste products are quickly removed from the system, a tremendous amount of hard work can be done without serious injury. It is when the nerve tissues and brain cells are used up faster than they are replaced by new ones, when the tired can be furnished, that brain, nerves and vital organs suffer—cry out with neuralgia, heart disease, rheumatism, nervous dyspepsia—and finally break down. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is food for the worn-out brain and wasted tissues. It gives a healthy appetite; makes the weak stomach strong; increases the flow of digestive juices and puts the lazy liver to work. It is the greatest blood vitalizer and nerve remedy science has produced.

"I was suffering from sleeplessness and painful nervous sensations, brought on from overwork and anxiety, and although I tried a number of remedies recommended for this disorder I obtained little or no benefit from any of them. In fact none of the advertised remedies seemed to do me any good rather than diminish the difficulty, and I soon decided to give Dr. Miles' Nervine a trial. The first few doses convinced me that I had found a specific for my trouble and I continued its use with the most satisfactory results. It seemed to feed the nervous system, afford restful sleep without any of the after effects of using other artificial stimulant and can be discommended as well. I deem it the best remedy for nervous people now on the market."

TAYLOR MAY BE INDICTED

USURPATION OF OFFICE TO BE CHARGED.

Judge Cantrell, It is Said, Will Instruct Grand Jury on the Republican Claimants.

Frankfort, Ky., April 2.—It was asserted today that Judge Cantrell would instruct the Franklin county grand jury, when the court convened at 2 o'clock this afternoon, to return indictments against Republican Governor Taylor and all of the republican state officers, charging them with usurpation of the office they hold.

Usurpation of office, under the Kentucky statute law, is a high misdemeanor, punishable by heavy fine, and Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin has intimated that he will make a vigorous prosecution of the usurpation indictments if they are returned.

GUBERNATORIAL CASE.

Louisville, Ky., April 2.—Arguments in the gubernatorial contest cases were begun before the court of appeals, sitting in the chancery division of the circuit court, in this city today.

IS HIGHLY PRAISED.

The Decatur, Ill., Review prints the letter of the Fort Wayne Commercial club which sets forth the inducements for factories locating in this city, and gives it much praise as a strong presentation of the advantages of Fort Wayne. The letter was written to A. G. Webber, of Decatur, who desired to know how other cities proceed in securing these industries, and the Review prints it together with a number of replies from other cities. The Fort Wayne letter is commended as far better than any other received by Mr. Webber.

DYNAMITE FOR COX.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 2.—An attempt to destroy the residence of George B. Cox, the republican leader, was made today by some unknown person placing on the veranda a package of dynamite addressed to Mrs. George B. Cox. Mr. Cox suspected danger and turned the package over to the police. It was found to contain a large charge of dynamite. A match and powder were so arranged that in drawing out the lid the machine would have exploded. Mr. Cox reported to the police that he was warned last night that an attempt on his life would be made.

COMMENCED WORK.

A gang of men today commenced work on the intercepting sewer in the extreme eastern part of the city. Several teams and scrapers were at work taking the top off the earth and excavating will begin tomorrow. It will be some weeks before tunneling begins.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

William Schafer and Hannah Gebers.

NOVEL WARFARE ON SALOONS.

Aurora, Ill., April 2.—The temperance people of Aurora have framed a plan which they think will rid the city of the saloons. Heretofore it has been impossible to get a majority vote in favor of no license, partly because of the large sum, from $35,000 to $40,000, which the saloons pay into the city treasury each year. The new scheme, which has received the indorsement of the local association of evangelical ministers is to raise a fund equal to the amount of saloon license for one year, with which to reimburse the city for the loss of the license if the saloons should be abolished. With this understanding the question will be submitted to popular vote at the annual city election in 1901. This will give a year in which to raise the money and to work up public sentiment. Aurora at present has thirty-seven saloons, confined to the business district and paying a license tax of $1,000 each.

MUDDY COMPLEXIONS

SKIN TORPID ROUGH PIMPLY

Nothing is so annoying and mortifying as a muddy, rough and pimply complexion, or a face disfigured by unsightly boils and blackheads. Skin eruptions come from poisonous accumulations in the system, which have found their way into the blood and been carried to the surface. Complexion soaps, powders and lotions not only do not cure, but are damaging to the skin and dangerous to health. You can not cure an internal disease with external remedies. The blood is where the disease is; S. S. S. cures because it is a real blood medicine. Begins the cure where the disease began—in the blood.

SSS IS THE ONLY TRUE SKIN-BEAUTIFIER.

S. S. S. purifies the blood, makes it active and strong, when it forces out all poisonous matters through the natural channels of waste. S. S. S., the only purely vegetable remedy, makes the skin smooth, clear, healthy and beautiful.

Mr. H. T. Slade, 2708 Locust Ave., St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for years with a disfiguring eruption on her face, which resisted all treatment. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many medicines were prescribed, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished the eruption began to disappear. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now seventeen years old, and not a sign of the disfiguring disease has ever returned."

HEART DISEASE.

Some Facts Regarding the Rapid Increase of Heart Trouble.

Heart trouble, at least among the Americans, is certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular, persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Red hair is a great blessing though probably few persons acknowledge it. A German physician explains why persons so adorned seldom get so bald as others. Red hair is so thick that 30,000 cover a head, as well as 100,000 blonde or 105,000 black hairs.

The Boers have not lost their curiosity for setting traps nor the English theirs for walking into them.

It has been discovered, as a sort of counter-irritant of public sentiment, that there is a democratic plot in Kentucky to hang enough republicans to capture the state from the political list.

The captain of a transport just returned from the Philippines says Aguinaldo attended a masked ball in the city of Manila on New Year's night. Who he was looking for has not been learned, but nobody appears to have been captured or hurt.

The new assessment of the public franchises of New York city, as made by the state tax commission, increases their value by $189,654,071, which means an increase of nearly five millions to the city's revenues from taxes. Just how the energetic and watchful police force is to get a "rake off" on this has not been determined.

Jules Verne may find at the Paris exposition the realization of his earlier fancies. The automobile, the submarine boat and all those wonders which he pictured in fiction are fictitious no longer. As his trip around the world in eighty days was eclipsed by actual performance, so many other of his imaginative children have been surpassed.

To the energetic efforts of President Harper the University of Chicago is indebted for an addition of $4,000,000 to its cash assets. Last year John D. Rockefeller gave to the university an additional gift of $2,000,000, provisional upon the university raising a like sum from other sources. The limit of time was January 1st last, but at the beginning of the year President Harper was many hundreds of thousands short of the sum he was expected to raise and Mr. Rockefeller extended the time until April 1st. Last Saturday morning President Harper needed a balance of $163,000 to complete his $2,000,000. Before night he had realized the money and secured Mr. Rockefeller's $2,000,000. Mr. Rockefeller has now given $7,000,000 to the University of Chicago, whose total endowments now amount to $11,000,000.

It is now said that Senator Hanna has fixed his political eye on Secretary of the Navy Long for a vice presidential candidate. Secretary Long in most respects fills the bill. He is wealthy and eastern. The navy department went through the Spanish war without any scandals and made a record in naval warfare. Secretary Long's candidacy, it seems to be thought, would offset considerable of the anti-expansion sentiment of his own state of Massachusetts and other New England states. Anyhow, Secretary Long is "mentioned" and his name probably completes a ticket of probable running mates for McKinley.

When Senator Beveridge had reached the middle of his great speech in the senate Thursday a tall, spirituelle looking old gentleman strode suttly into the chamber from the republican side and eased himself down into the nearest vacant chair. Among the few senators who did Mr. Beveridge the courtesy of remaining in the chamber while he was speaking was his colleague. Though Mr. Fairbanks paid no attention to the speaker. The chair taken by the tall old gentleman was next to the desk occupied by Senator Fairbanks. The visitor leaned over and asked Senator Fairbanks who it was speaking. Senator Fairbanks told him, with a surprised look, that it was his colleague. The tall, spirituelle old gentleman who asked the question was John Sherman. The incident is being related at the capitol as a great joke. The day was when John Sherman was not the butt of the ribald jester. It is predicted that the day will come when Albert Jeremiah Beveridge will not be the butt of the ribald jesters, either.

The soliciting committee of the Commercial club is nearing the end of its labors in the work of raising a $10,000 factory bonus. The response to the request for subscriptions has been very gratifying and the balance necessary to make up the amount desired will no doubt be secured within a few days. The benefit derived from this project will be important in a larger way than merely securing this one proposed manufacturing establishment for Fort Wayne. It will have splendid educational value. The people of this city will at once see the importance of concerted substantial effort to promote the industrial growth of the community. The new factory will be a perpetual object lesson of this. Another vast benefit will come from the aroused and aggressive public spirit that must inevitably spring from all great efforts of this sort. With the Withington factory securely landed there will be a purpose to land others. Men who have contributed to this enterprise will be ready to contribute to others. Indeed, many business men have expressed a willingness to contribute handsomely once a month to aid in securing a new manufacturing establishment. Let the work be kept going. The spirit of enterprise will multiply itself if it is not permitted to lag.

ROOM AT THE ORPHANS' HOME

TO BE FITTED UP BY FORT WAYNE ODD FELLOWS.

Gift of No. 14 and Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge—Furnishings Shown at Pickard's.

Fort Wayne lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., at Calhoun and Wayne streets, and Queen Esther Rebekah lodge No. 324 have united in the furnishing of a handsome room at the new home for aged Odd Fellows and the widows and orphans of Odd Fellows, which is now nearing completion at Greensburg, this state, and the furnishings purchased for the room will be on display for a few days in the windows of the Pickard hardware store, on Columbia street.

The room turned over to the Fort Wayne members is a corner room, one of the most pleasant in the building, and corresponds in number to the lodge in this city. The furnishings include an iron bed, dressing case, stand, three rockers, pictures and a full outfit of linens and bedding, the linens being the gift of the Rebekah lodge. No expense has been spared in the purchase of the furnishings, and they are the best that could be secured. The movement is being largely followed by lodges of Odd Fellows all over Indiana, and the Fort Wayne members of both the subordinate and Rebekah branches can always be depended upon to perform their full share of the beneficent work of the order of Odd Fellows, which has now reached a membership of more than 50,000 in Indiana alone.

IS SERIOUSLY BURNED.

Mrs. W. H. Kaylor, who resides at 122 Washington boulevard, was seriously burned about the upper part of the body on Sunday morning. She was lighting a stove in the kitchen, when the sleeve of her dress caught fire, and in a moment the whole garment was ablaze. Mrs. Kaylor ran into the yard and rolled on the ground a number of times, extinguishing the flames. The right arm, shoulder and chest were badly burned, the skin on that part of the body coming off when the clothing was removed. Dr. W. H. Myers was called to render medical service. The injuries are most serious, and it will be some time before the lady will be able to be about.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Tacoma, Wash., April 2.—J. B. Thompson, chief city detective, and A. J. Hoshor, his nephew, were arrested last night by Sheriff Van Davanter and two deputies, of Seattle on a charge of embezzling $20,000 from H. G. Torrence, a Klondiker. Hoshor was Torrence's private secretary for two years and was to have sold him two mining claims for $8,000. According to Torrence, Hoshor held this money and $12,000 additional and under Thompson's instructions has refused to give a deed to the Dawson properties.

TAKE A NEW PARTNER.

Parke Frazier, a well known young business man who has been connected with the McCormick Harvester company, has purchased an interest in the furniture house of Soliday, Hite & Co., and the firm now becomes Soliday, Hite & Frazier. Negotiations to this end have been in progress some days, and the change is one which will lend added strength and popularity to this successful business house. The growth in the firm's business has necessitated the addition of two new salesmen—L. F. Scherer, who for a number of years conducted the Model Steam bakery, and Joseph Zurbuch, for two years a salesman at the H. N. Ward china store.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perriguey and Miss Angie Creager, of this city, who visited for a week with Lemuel Dorsey, of Columbia City, have returned home. They were accompanied to Fort Wayne by Oliver Pike, of Fresno, Cal., and Mrs. R. Hawes, of Fulton country, Ohio.

THE ROYAL VISIT.

QUEEN ELATED OVER COMING JOURNEY TO IRELAND.

ROYAL POTS AND PANS SENT

VICTORIA MUST HAVE HER OWN UTENSILS.

AFRICAN WAR IS FORGOTTEN

LONDONERS THINKING ABOUT OTHER MATTERS.

[Copyrighted, 1900, The Associated Press.]

London, April 2.—The Life Guards, couriers, carriages, pots and pans and other royal paraphernalia have already gone to the Emerald Isle, which eagerly waits for Queen Victoria to follow.

How her majesty will be received and the prospects of her doings in Dublin have quite overshadowed all other topics, even in a week which has been marked by the annual interversity boat race, the resignation of the duke of Norfolk as mastmaster general, the announcement of the Delagoa Bay railroad award and the rumors of possible war in the far east.

Great Britain's own war in South Africa has almost been forgotten, as uninteresting has been the progress of peace in the Orange Free State compared with the stirring accounts of battles which the British people had grown accustomed to read daily.

QUEEN IN GOOD HEALTH.

The queen is said to be in excellent health and well able to bear the strain of the trip to Ireland. She commences her journey April 2 and sleeps on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, landing at Kingstown April 4. In anticipation of her majesty's progress through the city the streets of Dublin are already gay with flags and decorations.

A curious feature of the preparations at the vice regal lodge, where the queen will stay, are the pots and pans already referred to.

Her majesty is tremendously particular about her kitchen arrangements and those at the vice regal lodge were found to be quite below the royal standard. Consequently, no less than 300 copper fricandeau pans, eighty-four sauce pans, fifty copper stock pots and many other varieties of cooking utensils have been sent to Dublin especially for the visit. The earl of Denbigh, who goes to Ireland as chief of the royal entourage and lord-in-waiting, holds three Irish titles and was formerly aide-de-camp to the lord lieutenant.

However, though the queen is said to be full of excitement and enthusiastic in connection with her approaching visit, she is not forgetful of South Africa.

WILL SPITE OOM PAUL.

Many people imagined her anxiety about the war would cause her death. "I may die," added her majesty, "but it will be from some other cause. I do not mean to let Mr. Kruger kill me."

London, or rather that great residential part of it which is outside the city proper, has been relieved this week from a grievance almost as great as the war itself. For months yelling newsboys have been in the habit of making the quiet streets hideous at all hours, day and night, with endeavors to hawk "extras," often with nothing in them. The London county council has now stopped this nuisance and any newsboy shouting his wares is liable to arrest.

SOME FIGHTING PEERS.

The almost unprecedented action of a cabinet minister giving up his office to fight for his country results in giving South Africa not only England's premier peer, but three other holders of the highest rank in the peerage, namely, the duke of Marlborough, the duke of Roxburgh and the duke of Westminster, ranging from fifty-two years in the case of the duke of Norfolk to the duke of Westminster's twenty-one.

The United States cruiser Albany remains at New Castle, though her officers expected she would have sailed long before this. Several weeks will probably elapse before she leaves England. No opportunity has been had for testing her guns and several minor changes are being made. In the meanwhile her officers and crew are having a dreary time at New Castle. Captain Craig managed to get steam-heat put in for the crew, but the officers' quarters are merely warmed by a couple of stoves, which arrangement during the recent bitterly cold weather has not added to the happiness of their existence.

COLWELL IS RELIEVED.

Commander Clover relieves Lieutenant Commander Colwell April 2 as United States naval attache here. The retiring incumbent has been the recipient during the last few weeks of many valedictory dinners and on all sides there are expressions of regret that he is leaving the naval service here. Both he and Mrs. Colwell are very popular. The Spanish war devolved upon him more important duties than ever fell to the lot of an American attache during his three years' tenure. Over $15,000,000 passed through Lieutenant Colwell's hands.

Colonel Cary Sanger is busy in London collecting facts regarding the war and is sending a special report to the war department at Washington regarding the lessons learned from transport and kindred matters. Colonel Sanger makes the United States embassy his headquarters.

Military circles here are somewhat puzzled by the appearance of a volunteer officer especially commissioned by the United States war department to do what is generally considered to be the peculiar function of the military attache, which post Colonel Sumner still formally holds.

MEET AGAIN IN TWO WEEKS

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE TO NAME THE CANDIDATES

For County Councilmen—Mr. Loutitt Recommended for Speaker of the House.

The democratic county committee, after completing its organization Saturday by the election of H. C. Berghoff as chairman, A. E. Melching as secretary and Dr. M. Harrod as treasurer, discussed the plan of nominating county councilmen. It was finally, on motion of A. M. Reichelderfer, decided to allow the committeemen from the townships representing each district to name the councilmen for such districts, the three at large to be selected by the entire committee. No names were suggested. A resolution recommending Hon. G. W. Loutitt for speaker of the next Indiana house of representatives was adopted. The committee then adjourned to meet Saturday, April 14, in the democratic headquarters, on Court street.

TWO GREAT MEN.

Justice Brewer and Justice Harlan, both members of the United States supreme court, stand side by side in intelligence and ability with the older seven members of that august body. In no particular, however, do these two men show their real greatness and interest in humanity any more plainly than when on every Sabbath day they stand before a large class of young people in the Sunday school and teach the word of God. The very cream of the earth, so far as morality and good citizenship is concerned may be found in the Sunday school, for this is the factory of good citizenship. Nothing is doing so much to elevate the general character of our people as the religious and moral training of the youth. We have nearly 11,000,000 of people in the Sunday schools of this country. These Sunday schools are continally improving through the wonderful agency of the International Sunday school convention, which has auxiliaries in all the states and provinces and is doing more to cultivate the spirit of good citizenship than all other agencies combined.

TURNER'S CONVENTION.

The members of the Fort Wayne Turnverein are making preparations for the state convention of the Turner societies to be held in this city May 5, 6, and 7. The following program will be observed:

Saturday, May 5.—Reception to visitors at Turner hall, 4 and 6 Harrison street, beginning at 7 o'clock p. m.

Sunday, May 6.—10 a. m., formal opening of the convention by South Bend section; 12 m., dinner, served by the Fort Wayne ladies' section; 2 p. m., Continuation of the business session; 6 p. m., banquet at Randall hotel; 8 p. m., social session, concert, etc., in Turner hall, under the auspices of the Turnverein Vorwaerts.

On Monday the visitors will be escorted about the city and shown the sights, this feature closing the convention.

PLUMBERS ON STRIKE.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 2.—Journeymen plumbers to the number of about 200 went on strike in this city today for higher wages. The journeymen are at present receiving $3 per day while junior plumbers get $2.25. They deman $3.50 and $3.25 respectively, all men who have served five years or more to be entitled to the maximum pay.

HIGHEST WAGES FOR YEARS.

Altoona, Pa., April 2.—The new scale for the mining of bituminous coal went into effect today and from now on the 15,000 miners in this section will receive the highest wages in thirty years.

KILLED BY FALLING WALLS

TWO FIREMEN AND SCHOOLBOY BURIED.

High School Building Burned Sunday at Owosso, Mich.—The Ruins Topple Over.

Owosso, Mich., April 2.—Two firemen and a schoolboy were killed yesterday by falling walls. The high school building is in ruins. The loss is $125,000. Fire was discovered in the building about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The department responded quickly, but was unable to do effective work, the building being on an eminence and hard to get at with hose. Several streams were got into it, however, and the fire was quenched, but not before it had ruined the interior.

When the fire was apparently subdued a large number of boys entered the building to look for books. The firemen warned them away, but they were slow to obey. About 4 o'clock one of the firemen saw a wall tottering and shouted to those in the building to get out from under. Before they could do so the wall fell, catching Fred Ross and Edward Freel, firemen, and Frank Tucker, a boy. All three of them were killed.

Will Ross, Zene Ross and Charles Beaty, firemen, fell three stories with debris and were fatally injured. Frank Davis, Frank Rutledge and Solomon Vogel, schoolboys, after books, were struck down by falling timbers. They crawled from the debris and jumped through windows into the basement. They are badly injured, but may recover.

DROWNED CHILD AT A PUMP.

Wichita, Kas., April 2.—Frank Haskey was arrested at Fry, I. T., and placed in jail yesterday. He is charged with murdering his ten-year-old son in a brutal manner. First he held the boy against a red-hot cook stove and seared his skin. Then he took him to a pump in the back yard and tied him under the faucet. He then pumped water on the lad's head until he was drowned. The neighbors came over and took Haskey in charge. Lynching was only averted by the arrival of officers. The son is not known to have committed any offense. Haskey has been in the penitentiary for stealing.

GETS REVENGE WITH A WHIP.

Detroit, Mich., April 2.—A dramatic scene occurred in Oakwood yesterday afternoon. A woman with flaming red hair stood in the center of the road, wrapped in a long cloak. There was determination in her eye as she nervously awaited the approach of a team hauling a load of wood and a man, evidently a farmer, seated on it. The man attempted to whip up the horses as he reached the woman, but she ran beside the wagon and rained blow after blow across the man's face and shoulders with a whip she had taken from under her cloak. She said the man had insulted her.

BOUGHT NEW LINES

NATIONAL COMPANY MAKES A TELEPHONE DEAL.

GIVES AN INLET TO MICHIGAN

TOGETHER WITH SEVERAL TOLL LINES.

GET THE STURGIS EXCHANGE

FORT WAYNE COMPANY TOOK CHARGE TODAY.

The telephone exchange at Sturgis, Mich., together with a number of toll lines in the vicinity of that city, this morning passed into the control of the National Telephone and Telegraph company, of Fort Wayne, the long distance company of which S. M. Foster is president, and which operates its service to outside territory in connection with the Home company of this city.

The deal for the purchase of this property was negotiated several days ago, and it is regarded as an important one by the officers of the National company, for the reason that it gives them an entrance into Michigan over which they have absolute control, and it means a considerable enlargement of the National system. Included in the purchase is the Sturgis exchange with nearly 250 'phones, and toll lines reaching Burr Oak, Fawn River, Mich., and Lima, Ind., thus completing the straight route of National wires into Michigan.

General Manager Trier will reach Sturgis tomorrow and check in the new local manager, as well as begin arrangements for extensive improvement of the system. The past year has witnessed a wonderful growth of the National system, and plans for the present year are to eclipse the record of 1899.

PLAYERS COME NEXT WEEK

REPORT LATER THAN ANY PREVIOUS SEASON.

"Doggie" Miller Didn't Get Credit for a Hit- The Base Ball Gossip.

One week from today, on April 9 the Fort Wayne base ball players are expected to report in South Bend to begin training. Manager Glasscock and several of the players will come to Fort Wayne first and it is expected that by Saturday several of the Hoosier team will be in Fort Wayne. Heretofore the members of the team have commenced straggling in on the last of March and first of April, but the training season will be gin later than usual this season. Bergen's contract has not been returned signed, but the management is confident that he will be here. If he fails to come Hollingsworth and the new man, Jackway, will do the work behind the bat during the exhibition series.

"DOGGIE" MILLER'S HITS.

Charley Dexter says there are mighty few scorers who know when to draw the line between an error and a base hit. He recalls a case, which took place at Louisville, to illustrate his statement:

"Doggie" Miller was up to bat, Harrington played second for the Colonels, and was close in. Miller swung his wagon tongue and landed on the ball in quest of a home run. The ball went low and carried off Harrington's legs and bounded into the bleachers, and Miller went to second. The force of the ball made Harrington spin around like a top and it was thought at first his leg was broken. Miller made another hit and boasted of getting two that way. Next morning every paper gave Harrington an error."

Any scorer in the big league circuit, barring Louisville, of course, would have seen the play differently. The players of other teams have always said that Louisville scorers always chalk up errors when a fielder touches the ball, no matter at what angle or speed it comes, or in what position the fielder is to receive it.

NOTES.

George Reiman, who pitched part of two seasons for Fort Wayne, has signed with the Troy, N. Y., team.

Nocum, who has been in Fort Wayne most of the winter, has signed to play with the Albany, N. Y., team.

Delehanty is doing some wonderful batting in practice. He generally hits out five, six or seven "Singles."

Flood has written to Secretary Hubbard about a young twirler named Speece, but he will not be signed if Glasscock's negotiations for a couple of first-class twirlers materialize.

The Rochester Eastern league team will play the Daytons, Wheelings and New Castles exhibition games within the next two weeks.

Manager Jack Glasscock is expected in the city Saturday or Sunday. The other players, at least most of them, will report at South Bend on April 9.

Manager John Eggemann, of the Notre Dame team, is trying to induce the Fort Wayne management to play a game with his college team in this city on April 24.

"Chick" Stahl met Manager Selee and several players of the Boston team at Washington Saturday, and this morning the ex-champions began training at Greensboro, N. C.

M. S. Robison and Louis Heilbroner have been at work with their pencils and figure that the St. Louis team will travel between 10,000 and 11,000 miles during the season of 1900.

Owner Riley, of Columbus, has not given up having "Biddy" McFee as manager of the Inter-State team. McPhee would be a big attraction in the Inter-State circuit and every cent of the money expended in salary for him would return to the box offices of the several clubs.

Walter Wilmot, manager of the Minneapolis American league team, is after Oscar Schreengost and Outfielder Hemphill, of the St. Louis team. Both of these players are graduates of the Inter-State league and in another year should rank among the high class players of the country.

Sam Thompson, the greatest slugger of them all, may be signed to play with Detroit this season. He believes that his health has so far recovered as to permit him again donning the spangles, and if his release can be secured from Philadelphia Manager Stallings will give him a chance.

Wheeling Register: "Captain Jack Glascock has received an advance in salary from Fort Wayne and expects to place the team at the top. 'Wheeling has a strong club,' Jack said last night, 'and ought to rank one, two, three right along.' Jack received $50 for signing a team for Sioux City among them Pitcher Parvin, Catcher Cote and Third Baseman Billy Niles."

AMENDS FOR BROOKS' MURDER.

Peking, April 2.—The Chinese government has "settled" the controversy arising out of the murder on December 3 last of Rev. Mr. Brooks, of the Church Missionary society, on the following terms: Two of the murderers will be beheaded; one imprisoned for life, one for ten years, another for two years, a memorial chapel will be erected upon the site of the murder and a tablet will be placed in Canterbury Cathedral, England, at the expense of the Chinese government.

Rev. Mr. Brooks was stationed at Ping Yin, in the province of Shan-Tung. He was captured in that vicinity and killed by members of the seditious society known as "Boxers," who had been very active in destroying villages and slaughtering native Christians. The governor of the province had dispatched a force of cavalry to the scene of disturbance, but the soldiers arrived too late to save the life of Mr. Brooks.

TALKS FOR BOERS

HON. WEBSTER DAVIS COMES HOME WITH MISSION.

WILL RESIGN OFFICE TODAY

IS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

WANTS FREEDOM TO SPEAK

BELIEVES AMERICA SHOULD STOP THE UNHOLY WAR.

Washington, April 2.—Walter Davis, assistant secretary of the interior, will this evening tender his resignation. He will go on the lecture platform in the interest of the Boers.

In an authorized statement given out today Mr. Davis says that as a result of his visit to the Transvaal he feels impelled to tender his resignation as assistant secretary of the interior. He will at an early date deliver a lecture in this city in the interests of the South African republics. Mr. Davis feels that this is the best way to arouse the enthusiasm of the American people in behalf of these republics.

WANTS FREEDOM TO TALK.

Mr. Davis decided to resign because of the acceptance of an invitation to deliver a lecture on the South African war and he felt that as an official he could not express his views with such freedom as he could as a private citizen. The invitation was extended by non-partisan citizens of Washington and was not inspired in any way by persons directly connected with Boer interests. Mr. Davis said today:

"It is purely a matter of sympathy on my part. I went to South Africa unprejudiced, visited both armies, saw much of the British soldiers and people and also much of the Boers. After seeing what I did I made up my mind that the cause of the Boers was just, that the two smallest republics in the world were struggling against the greatest empire in the world for home, justice and independence. The struggle seemed to me very unequal. The whole number of Boers, including men, women and children, is not greater than the population of the city of Washington and yet these brave people have the courage to put up the greatest fight in history against an empire of four hundred million. I concluded at once that my sympathies were with those struggling for liberty and I feel that the American people should sympathize with them in their fight for justice and independence.

BOERS APPEAL TO HIM.

"When I entered the train at Pretoria, on my return home, fully 2,000 men and women, mostly women, whose husbands and fathers and sons were at the front, gathered at the station to bid me good bye, and as the train rolled down many of their faces, they made the last request of me that I do everything within my power upon my return home to let the American people know of the exact condition; to let them know how they had been abused and outrageously misrepresented by the English. The English correspondents have no trouble in getting their dispatches over the cable lines, as they are controlled absolutely by the British, while it is impossible for information regarding the situation from the Boer standpoint to reach the American people. I, I did not, as a free American, decide to listen to their appeals, my conscience would burn and the facts of those suffering people, as brave and as noble as God ever let live in any land, would haunt me as long as I live. I am therefore determined to do everything in my humble way to assist them. Their cause is just and in God in their trust and in the light of the past history of the American people, who went through the same struggle, I believe the Boers will win."

UNHOLY WAR SHOULD STOP.

Mr. Davis was asked what course he would have the people of this country pursue in order to assist the Boers. He replied:

"Do anyahing and everything within their power and let Great Britain and the world know that the sympathies of the American people are not with Great Britain, but with the Boers and in the interests of humanity and civilization. We should let the world know that such an unholy war should stop and stop at once."

Mr. Davis, since his return to this country, has had numerous invitations to deliver lectures, but has so far decided to accept only that extended by the citizens of Washington. This lecture probably will be delivered next Sunday night.

Mr. Davis denied that he brought with him a communication to this government from President Kruger. He admitted, however, that he had had several conferences with President McKinley, but declined to make public what had passed between them.

When asked as to whether he would go on the stump during this campaign in the interest of the republican party, Mr. Davis said that he did not care to look into the future and that all he had within sight at present was his lecture in Washington. He had no criticisms to make in regard to the administration's attitude concerning the war in Africa.

RESIGNATION A SURPRISE.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock said today that the announcement of Mr. Davis' intention to resign was a complete surprise to him. He had expected that Mr. Davis would resume his duties, although he had not been nor heard anything of him since his return until today, when he was informed that he was to resign. It was said at the interior department that the best of feeling prevailed between Mr. Davis and the other officials.

LOCATED THE SOUTH POLE.

Wellington, New Zealand, April 2. The exploring steamer Southern Cross, bearing C. E. Borchgrevink and the survivors of the south polar expedition fitted out in 1898 by Sir George Newnes, of London, arrived yesterday at Campbell Town, near Bluff Harbor, New Zealand. Mr. Borchgrevink reports that the magnetic pole has been located. N. Hansen, one of the zoologists who started with the expedition, died on the voyage.

The Borchgrevink expedition left Hobart, Tasmania, for the antarctic region December 19, 1898. During the latter part of February, 1899, the members landed from Southern Cross near Cape Adair, Victorialand, it having been arranged that the steamer should leave them there with full equipment of every kind, and should return for them early in 1900. Mr. Borchgrevink's party consisted of nine, including himself. Lieut. W. Colbeck, R. N. R., was selected as first magnetic observer, to be assisted by Louis Bernacchi; N. Hansen and Hugh Evans were chosen as zoologists, and Dr. H. Kloestad as medical officer. Mr. Fougnal was general utility man and cook. With there went two natives of Finland to look after ninty dogs. Enormous supplies of provisions were laid in.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES

TWO ADAMS COUNTY COUNTRY HOMES DESTROYED.

FAMILY FLEES FOR SHELTER

TO FIND EXPECTED PLACE OF REFUGE IN FLAMES.

A BOX FULL OF BRILLIANTS

GENERAL NEWS OF NORTHERN INDIANA.

Decatur, Ind., April 2. The home of John Potts, a prominent farmer, was burned at midnight, the occupants having just enough time to escape. No one thought of Johnston Schaffer, an old soldier partially paralyzed, who slept in one of the upstairs rooms, until the roof of the kitchen had fallen. Mr. Potts rescued him from the burning building, but Schaffer's feet were so badly burned that amputation of both members was necessary. He will likely die.

After the fire had finished its work Mr. Potts, with his wife and one child, prepared to go in his brother Peter's home, a mile distant. When they were within a short distance flames were seen to shoot from every window, and not a single thing was saved, as every one had left the place and gone to the other fire. The cause of both fires remains a mystery, but incendiarism is suspected.

FOUND MANY STONES IN BOX.

Hartford City, Ind., April 2 - Dock Bolner, a machine tender at the Hartford City paper mill, yesterday found in a bale of old papers which had been shipped from England a small tin box which contained thirty-one large brilliant stones, believed to be genuine diamonds. The box was wrapped in parchment, on the inside of which appeared the address: "London office Paper Trade Journal, 410 Cannon street, London, England." The stones are of various sizes and are believed to be worth a fabulous sum. Bolner is greatly elated over his find.

PAID WEDDING FEE AT LAST.

Kokomo, Ind., April 2.—Twenty-five years ago a strange couple called at the residence of Rev. Hayden Rayburn, this city, and were married, departing without paying the minister his fee. Saturday a strange man got off the train here and asked to be directed to the home of Rev. Mr. Rayburn. Learning that that minister was dead, the stranger called at the office of Dr. J. W. Rayburn, a son of the much-marrying preacher, and paid the long-delayed wedding fee, with interest. He explained that it was an elopement and that the parents were in close pursuit to prevent the marriage. This, he said, caused him to forget the clergymen's interest in the affair. The man came from a far distant state to pay the fee and apologized for the quarter of a century's delay. He said his conscience troubled him and compelled him to make the long trip. He expressed regret that Rev. Mr. Rayburn was not alive to accept the amende honorable. The stranger refused to give his name and address. His wife was still alive, he said, and the runaway wedding was not regretted.

SINGULAR FREAK OF NATURE.

Huntington, Ind., April 2.—In section 31, Rock Creek township, this county, there is a small natural basin, twenty feet wide and about three feet deep. It is the center of a basin toward which all water flows which falls on the surrounding 100 acres. The bottom of the basin is always dry, the water disappearing as fast as it runs in. The bottom is hard and the disappearance of the water cannot be explained except on the theory that the spring-like [illegible] and drinks it up.

WED FORMER WIFE.

Wabash, Ind., April 2—Several months ago Dr. J. M. Hicks of Huntington and his wife, Zella, separated and by mutual agreement a divorce was granted to the woman. They lived apart and it was not suspected by their friends that a reconciliation was possible. It appears now, however, that they had been busy in their home circle and Dr. Hicks decided to pay court to Mrs. Hicks. He was favorably received and after a brief courting prospered that they remarried again. She accepted and on February 27 Rev. W. T. Wells, of the Christian Church, united them. The wedding was kept secret and the announcement just made has come as a general surprise.

NORTHERN INDIANA NOTES.

Martin Chlevek, two years old, fell into a tub of hot water at South Bend and was fatally scalded.

John Hintz was arrested at Huntington for vagrancy. He claims to have served two terms in Brooklyn as alderman.

James H. Eldridge and Miss Annie Dannuck, were licensed to marry at Peru. The bride is sixteen years old and tips the scales at 250 pounds.

Joseph Treagier and brother, near Hobart, have received word that by the death of an uncle in New York City they were heirs to an estate valued at $125,000.

There was a fox chase near Rich Valley, Wabash county, Saturday, which resulted in the capture of two foxes. The crowd enclosed an area six miles square and was formed at 9 o'clock. The center was reached at 10:45.

At Auburn the jury in the case against Elsworth Hamilton for assault and battery upon George Green, the negro who shot David Rowe in Frank Fredrick's saloon, fined Hamilton $25 and costs. Isaac Barricks, for the same offense upon the negro, was found not guilty.

Columbia City can boast of a young lady in her teens who can chew tobacco and squirt the rich brown juice out of her mouth with as much skill as any Smart Alec in the city. When asked why she formed the habit, she replied: "Just to be sporty." So says the Post.

BOURKE COCKRAN.

Bourke Cockran, the New York politician, is now a leader of the hunting set. He is famous and rich. His rise was rapid. He married a lot of money, and has made a great deal in real estate by wise investment of his wife's dot. But there were dark days for Bourke.

One day he was sitting on the stone steps in City hall square, buried in misery. His dress was not presentable and his pockets were absolutely empty. Fate took Ambrose E. Purdy that way, that, recognizing Bourke in despair, the assistant district attorney tapped him on the shoulder.

"Brace up, Bourke," he said, cheerily. "What's the trouble?" Bourke confided in him:

"I owe $150 for lodging and am to be turned out. I live over a beer saloon. I can't get a job. There's nothing for me to do. I think I'd better give up."

"Not on your life," said Purdy. "We'll fix things."

An election was pending and spellbinders were in demand. Purdy proposed:

"Bourke, why don't you give your landlord your note promising to pay him in six months or some such matter?"

"Note! Note! My note wouldn't be accepted anywhere," said Bourke. "I'd be kicked out."

"Nonsense! We'll go and make out the paper for $500. I'll indorse it. You give it to your landlord, and have him take out his $150 and let you have the difference."

It was done. Purdy's indorsement proving acceptable, Bourke got $350 in cash, which he divided with his friend. With the remaining he bought new clothes and in a day or two was on the hustlings, pleading and shouting for his party. New York Press.

POOR TENANTS.

"It seems impossible to build too many flats in New York," said a real estate man to a writer in the New York Commercial. "Acres of them have been going up for years, and yet they are filled with tenants almost as fast as they are finished. But the business of building skyscrapers is being overdone. There is no doubt about that. Only a few of the tall buildings are paying anything like a fair rate of interest. I know of several that are not earning 1 per cent on the investment.

"Strangely enough, the best paying real estate on Manhattan Island is the Eastside tenement property. Some of the most wretched tenements yield the biggest returns. This may suggest that the poor are ground down in the way of rents, forced by hard landlords to pay more in proportion than the rich. Be this as it may, the tenement houses are earning the largest interest for their owners."

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, April 2.—The corn market began the new month with considerable activity and strength today. The continued light country acceptances and the export demand were factors. A sale of 200,000 bushels was reported early. May opened 1/4c over Saturday at 38 5/8@39c and advanced sharply to 39 3/4c, shorts covering freely on the advance. Offerings in the pit were light at first, but on the advance came more freely and the market eased to 39 1/4c. Receipts here were 302 cars.

The remainder of the session showed no cessation either in strength or activity. 55,000 bushels corn were sold for direct export in addition to the lot sold early. May advanced gradually to 39 3/4c and closed strong 1/4c over Saturday at 39 3/8@1/2c.

The wheat market early was dull but firm, helped by the corn strength and nervousness over the extent of damages reported from portions of Europe. The expectation of a decrease in the visible was also something of an influence in covering against the short accounts.

Wheat continued rather dull to the end, but the tone was firm. Corn was undoubtedly a big help, and shorts were also influenced by the report that Argentine wheat had been damaged in the stack by rains.

May rallied to 67 3/4@1/2c and closed firm, 1/4@1/2c over Saturday at 67 1/8@1/4c.

May opened 1/4@1/2c over Saturday at 67@67 1/2c, and advanced to 67 7/8c. From this point the market sold off to 66 1/2c, but reacted to 67 1/4c. Local receipts were 60 cars, 2 of contract grade.

Minneapolis and Duluth reported 630 cars against 731 last week and 816 a year ago.

The provision market was active and strong, helped some by corn, and also by the buying of cold out bulls. May pork opened unchanged at $12.60 and advanced to $12.62 1/2. May lard opened 7 1/2c higher at $6.45, rallying to $6.50 and May ribs unchanged at $6.57 1/2, advancing to $6.67 1/2.

Oats was firm in sympathy with corn. May opened unchanged at 24 1/2c; advanced to 24 3/4c. Shorts were fair buyers. Local receipts were 224 cars.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, April 2—The downward plunge of over 2 points in sugar at the opening of the stock market had no effect on the rest of the list. An active and well distributed business carried prices generally upward. The metal stocks were in special request, Amalgamated rising 2 3/8, and steel and wire and Tennessee coal about a point each. In the railroad list Northern Pacific was the only stock in which the gain extended to a point. People's Gas rose 1 5/8 on large transactions.

In their advances were made by some of the metal stocks and sharp gains occurred in Lake Erie and Western, Great Northern preferred, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Sault Ste Marie preferred and a few other stocks. The general list was reactionary, marked declines resulting in the local tractions. Sugar broke to below $1.04 towards 11 o'clock, which unsettled the entire list and prices drifted downwards.

The specialties advanced at a lively rate, sugar rising 4%, General Electric 3 1/2c, People's Gas 3 1/2c and the local tractions 1 1/2@2c.

The railroads lagged and did not recover to the opening figures. Lake Erie and Western extended its gain to 3 1/2c, the preferred to 7 1/2c and Omaha 3c. Realizing checked the advance before noon. Bonds were active and irregular.

TO DETECT IMPURE WATER.

To detect impure water draw a tumblerful from the tap at night, put a piece of white lump sugar in it and place it on the kitchen mantelshelf, or in any place where the temperature will not be under 60 degrees Fahrenheit. In the morning the water, if pure, will be perfectly clear; if contaminated by sewerage or other impurities the water will be milky. This is a simple and safe test, well known by chemists.—Baltimore Herald.

PROFITS IN CHEAP MEALS

Sir Thomas Lipton's beneficent project of cheap dining rooms in London, where the poor may obtain the best food well cooked and well served at from 1 1/2d to 4 1/2d a meal, has a profit-making side to it which relieves the patrons of the establishment from the notion that they are the recipients of anybody's charity. It is said that when the enterprise is developed a little further it will return 8 per cent. profit on the investment.—New York Commercial.

Indiana as a glass producer ranks first in the window glass line, having passed Pennsylvania during the past year. There are now more than 100 glass plants in the Indiana field, all at work, employing an estimated force of 16,000 men.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A HEAVY TRAFFIC.

THE PITTSBURG HANDLES 125 TRAINS IN 16 HOURS.

PUTTTING IN LIGHTING PLANT

ELECTRIC WORKS SHIPPING DYNAMOES TO VINCENNES.

SICKNESS IS INCREASING

THE TRAIN AND SHOP SERVICE SLIGHTLY CRIPPLED.

Last Saturday and Sunday the western division of the Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago road handled the greatest number of trains of the season, and when the tonnage of the freight carried is learned, it will probably be found to exceed that of any similar period in the history of the road. Saturday's business was considerably larger than Sunday's, it amounting to sixty-eight trains, while that of Sunday was fifty-seven trains, the total being 125. This immense business was handled without a semblance of a blockade, a fact for which the transportation department is deserving of considerable credit.

SHIPPING DYNAMOS.

The Fort Wayne Electric company is installing a large lighting plant in Vincennes, Ind., and is this week shipping the machinery, lamps, etc. Today a carload of machinery and apparatus, including a 3,000-light and a 1,500-light machine and 325 are lamps, were shipped and tomorrow or the following day another carload of apparatus and equipment material will leave this city for the same place. A gang of construction men have been at work for several weeks putting up the poles and wires and that part of the work is now about finished.

A BIG SICK LIST.

The spring of 1900 will go down in history as the worst, viewed from a weather and sanitary standpoint known to the Pennsylvania train men and shopmen. March came in like a lion and didn't go out like a lamb, contrary to all precedence, and the cold, damp winds which prevailed throughout the month were a strong factor in the conditions which have brought sickness to many a man who under ordinary circumstances would have been "hale and hearty." The records in Road Foreman Colmey's office for the day contained the following new names not heretofore published: Engineers P. T. Welsh, M. R. Lacey, J. B. Ryan, W. Slagle, C. C. Craig and M. Swope, and Firemen C. B. Whitman and B. Spindler, sick; Engineer Harry Westerman, family sick; Engineer Henry Kelker, wife sick; Fireman W. A. LaForce, father sick, and Firemen O. T. Patterson and Henry Sayner, permission. The new names on the shop lists are: P. E. Albers, H. Thieke, A. J. Schirmeyer, W. Jones, F. J. Ryan, Peter Junk, M. Schmidt, William Lang and J. B. Bitner, sick, and E. Werkman and W. Heine, private business.

HOT COFFEE AT SHOPS.

Employers of labor are beginning to look more to the comfort and health of the men who work in their shops than was the custom in the past. The Wayne Knitting mills have provided a dining room for its employes and other establishments are said to be considering similar plans for serving luncheon in part or full. The Widdicomb brass works, at Grand Rapids, where several hundred men are employed, serves free coffee hot every noon and the milk used in the coffee is from two Jersey cows, purchased by the Widdicombs for that purpose. The coffee costs about $600 per year, but the employers consider the sum well expended, as it adds considerable to the comfort of the men and helps engender a better feeling between employer and employe.

THE GULF'S PRESIDENT.

The Kansas City Southern company, late the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf, has finally found a man who is willing to take the office of president of the road. The position had been offered to C. H. Cappell, W. C. Brown and George L. Bradburry in the order named, but each refused the office because of the conditions attending it and its property. S. W. Fordyce has accepted the position and has taken charge already. The new president is sixty years of age and has been in railroad service since 1859. He served in the war of the rebellion, at the close of which he engaged in banking business at Huntsville, Ala. In 1881 he resumed railroading as vice president of the Texas and St. Louis railroad. In 1891 he became president of the St. Louis Southwestern railway (Cotton Belt), which position he left a year ago to become receiver of the Gulf road. It is the opinion, however, that the owners of the Kansas City Southern are looking for a younger man to assume the presidency and that Mr. Fordyce will retire when the right man has been found. E. P. Ellwood, a son of Isaac L. Ellwood, second vice president of the American Steel and Wire company, has been elected treasurer of the road, and Max Pam, of the law firm of Pam, Calhoun & Glennon, of Chicago, will be general counsel.

NOTABLE RAILWAY CAREER.

E. P. Bryan, vice president and general manager of the St. Louis Terminal company, tendered his resignation Saturday to the board of directors and it is presumed that they will accept it. It is stated that the board has practically decided upon W. S. McChesney, jr., as Mr. Bryan's successor. Mr. McChesney is now superintendent of the Louisville and Nashville terminals in St. Louis. Mr. Bryan has accepted the position of general manager of the New York Rapid Transit Subway company, at a salary of $20,000 per annum and for a term of five years. Mr. Bryan's railway career is interesting. He was born in Ohio, and is the son of an Episcopal minister, who was a member of an old Virginia family. He entered the service of the Louisville and Nashville in 1865 at Lebanon, Ky., as a telegraph operator. He steadily worked his way up in various minor positions, until he was appointed agent of the company at Frankfort, Ky. In August, 1891, he was appointed superintendent of the company's terminals at Louisville, and in February of the following year he was appointed superintendent of the company's terminals in St. Louis. In December, 1895, when General Manager Ramsey resigned from the St. Louis terminals to go to the Wabash, Mr. Bryan was unanimously elected to succeed him by the six proprietary interests, viz.: the Missouri Pacific, Iron Mountain, Big Four, Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, Wabash and Louisville and Nashville.

REDUCED RATES GRANTED.

The General Passenger association has granted reduced rates to Indianapolis for May 1 and 2, when the prohibition party will hold its convention, and on March 27 to 28 inclusive, the appointed date of the meeting of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers of the United States. Reduced rates were also granted for the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar at Indianapolis, April 18 and 19; the Commercial Travelers' convention at Terre Haute and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers' convention at Cincinnati May 14 to 19, inclusive.

HAND PINCHED.

A most distressing accident happened to A. Zellers, a Pennsylvania brakeman, yesterday morning. He was a member of the crew on the second section of westbound freight train No. 81 and in making a coupling at Bucyrus his right hand was caught and crushed. The unfortunate man was brought to this city on No. 9 last evening and taken to St. Joseph hospital, where Dr. G. C. Stemen attended him. It was found necessary to amputate the middle finger of the injured hand. Mr. Zellers resides at No. 98 Archer avenue.

EXCURSION TO TERRE HAUTE

Agent R. G. Thompson, of the Wabash, has been instructed to sell tickets to parties next Sunday and Monday to Terre Haute upon the certificate plan, which entitles the purchaser to a ride home at the rate of a cent a mile. The grand lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Degree of Honor hold their annual sessions in Terre Haute next Tuesday and Wednesday. Perhaps twenty-five persons from this city will go there to attend the meetings, included being Capt. E. B. Smith, Councilmen J. J. Bauer and G. R. Hench, Dr. A. J. Kesler, N. Conover, C. F. Haller and A. S. Comerdale.

PUTTING IN SCALES.

Al Kinnaird is supervising the work of putting four platform scales into the new Pennsylvania transfer and freight warehouse in this city. This work will probably consume five or six days, and when it is completed the new part of the freight house will be turned over to business and the carpenters will commence work upon the old portion of the building.

SODA WATER SYRUPS IMPURE.

Astounding Results of Analysis at Connecticut Agricultural Station.

(Special to Chicago Record.)

New Haven, Conn., March 31.—The chemists at the Connecticut agricultural station have found that out of ninety-two samples of soda water syrups examined from local fountains fifty-six contained glucose, salicylic acid or coal-tar dyes and artificial flavors made from chemicals instead of fruit.

Drinking these poisonous syrups produces diarrohea and indigestion. In a single glass of soda water the chemists found enough red bordeaux dye to dye a six-inch square of woolen cloth a most brilliant color.

To avoid the effects described in the above, lovers of soda water should take the precaution to see that they get only the pure fruit juices. Mr. A. C. Amentz, of 18 West Berry street, is a pioneer in the advocacy of pure soda water, and has never used the extracts, etc., as most other dealers do, but has always put only the pure fruit juices into his syrups. His patrons appreciate his care in this regard, for thereby they have been able to indulge their appetite for soda without suffering any evil consequences.
